

Kimberly Juniors of the Contemporary Club
A Local Tradition Since 1916

To apply for membership, a girl should ask a parent to send a letter of intent stating her interest in joining and the school year in which she would like to join. Girls in younger grades are encouraged to send a letter of intent stating their interest in joining in high school. Registration for each upcoming year opens in March.

Send your letter of intent to:

KJ FUN FACTS

- ◆ Founded in 1916 by Helen Cheney Kimberly.
- ◆ Carried on until 1979 by her daughter, Mary Emma Shirk.
- ◆ Now governed by a dedicated Board of Trustees.
- ◆ Meetings are held Saturday mornings at The Contemporary Club.
- ◆ The meeting year runs from August through May.

The KJ PROGRAM

Kimberly Juniors are high school girls who meet Saturday mornings to receive classes in parliamentary procedure, personal development, drama, dancing, public speaking and other subjects.

The purpose of the organization is to teach the skills needed for young women to function successfully in modern society and gracefully involve themselves in community lives as good citizens and club women.
